

0090 0010

PROPERTY NAME: Palo Alto

OTHER NAMES: _____

MINERAL COMMODITY(IES): Barite (white)TYPE OF DEPOSIT: Hydrothermal BariteACCESSIBILITY: Two miles west of Carico Lake Road

OWNERSHIP: _____

PRODUCTION: Unknown

HISTORY: _____

County: LanderMining District: NoneAMS Sheet: WinnemuccaQuad Sheet: The Cedars 15'Sec. 21, T 25N, R 44E

Coordinate (UTM):

North 4430300 mEast 0497410 mZone 11DEVELOPMENT: Two pits one about 200 hundred yards long, the other about 100 yards long.ACTIVITY AT TIME OF EXAMINATION: None(?)GEOLOGY: Barite associated with a hydrothermal vein system in Havallah Formation. The barite is clearly a product of the hydrothermal system.

REMARKS: Photo's 6,7,8,9. The cherts and shales (?) are striking N25W and dipping irregularly to the SW. Sampled barite #696 and hydrothermal vein system #697. No recent activity, but some barite stockpiled in ore dump?

REFERENCES: _____

EXAMINER: Jack QuadeDATE VISITED: May 17, 1982