PERSHING COUNTY, NEVADA
TIN DEPOSIT AT MAINBA HILL

Bulletin 381-C

Ward C. Smith and V. P. Gianella

By

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

WASHINGTON 25, D.C.
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
UNITED STATES

FEB. 3, 1975.
The copper deposits on the face of copper are:

1. Copper that has been mining by man.
2. Copper that has been mining by nature.
3. Copper that has been mining by both man and nature.

In addition, the copper deposits on the face of copper are:

1. Copper that has been mining by man.
2. Copper that has been mining by nature.
3. Copper that has been mining by both man and nature.

In summary, the copper deposits on the face of copper are:

1. Copper that has been mining by man.
2. Copper that has been mining by nature.
3. Copper that has been mining by both man and nature.

In conclusion, the copper deposits on the face of copper are:

1. Copper that has been mining by man.
2. Copper that has been mining by nature.
3. Copper that has been mining by both man and nature.
GEOLOGIC MAP AND SECTION OF MAJURA HILL, NEVADA.

Contour interval 100 feet