

0340 0003

Sheet 4

(211)

NEVADA

NEVADA

ONY SYNDICATE
Black Warrior and Bloody Canyon antimony mines, 20 acres, in Pershing county, Nev. The Black Warrior mine in the district is developed by several tunnels to depth of 150', with total amounting to 2,000'. Ore, partly oxide and partly sulphide, occurs in this property, with N. S. course and dip of about 80'. Equipment at 2500 mill.

1915 and 40% in 1916, and $230,000 in 1916, the ore averaging 1915 and 40% in 1916. Production for 1917 amounted to 161 1/4 tons. Bloody Canyon mine in the Star district is developed by 2,500' of tunnel to 300'. See Pioneer Exploration Co.
MINING CO.

NEVADA

Office: Truckee, Nev.

Pres. H. W. Rand, pres.; A. M. Cheney, v. p.; S. P. Kinney, sec.-treas. Officers, Frank Holman, Frank Manning, directors. H. E. Rand, five claims, adjoining the properties of the Ohio-Kentucky People through which the Susan Duster lode of the Ohio-Kentucky People runs up to the south. The ore from the lode on the O. K. property have had an average assay value per ton of 7% lead, 20% zinc, 20 oz. silver in gold.

Investment: 1200' of underground work has been done. Company is sinking a vertical double-compartment shaft to the 650' level, at which it expects to cut the Susan Duster lode, 200' distant from the O. K. line. The O. K. company is said to have followed the lode to the north; power house, blacksmith shop, 40-h. p. gasoline engine and sor.

M MINING CO. OF NEVADA
Inactive. Mines and mill under bond and lease to Candalaria which sec.

NEVADA

Includes Northern Belle and Holmes Mines, in camp of Candalaria county, Nev., 9 miles from Redlich, on Tonopah & Goldfield described, Volume XIII.

NEVADA

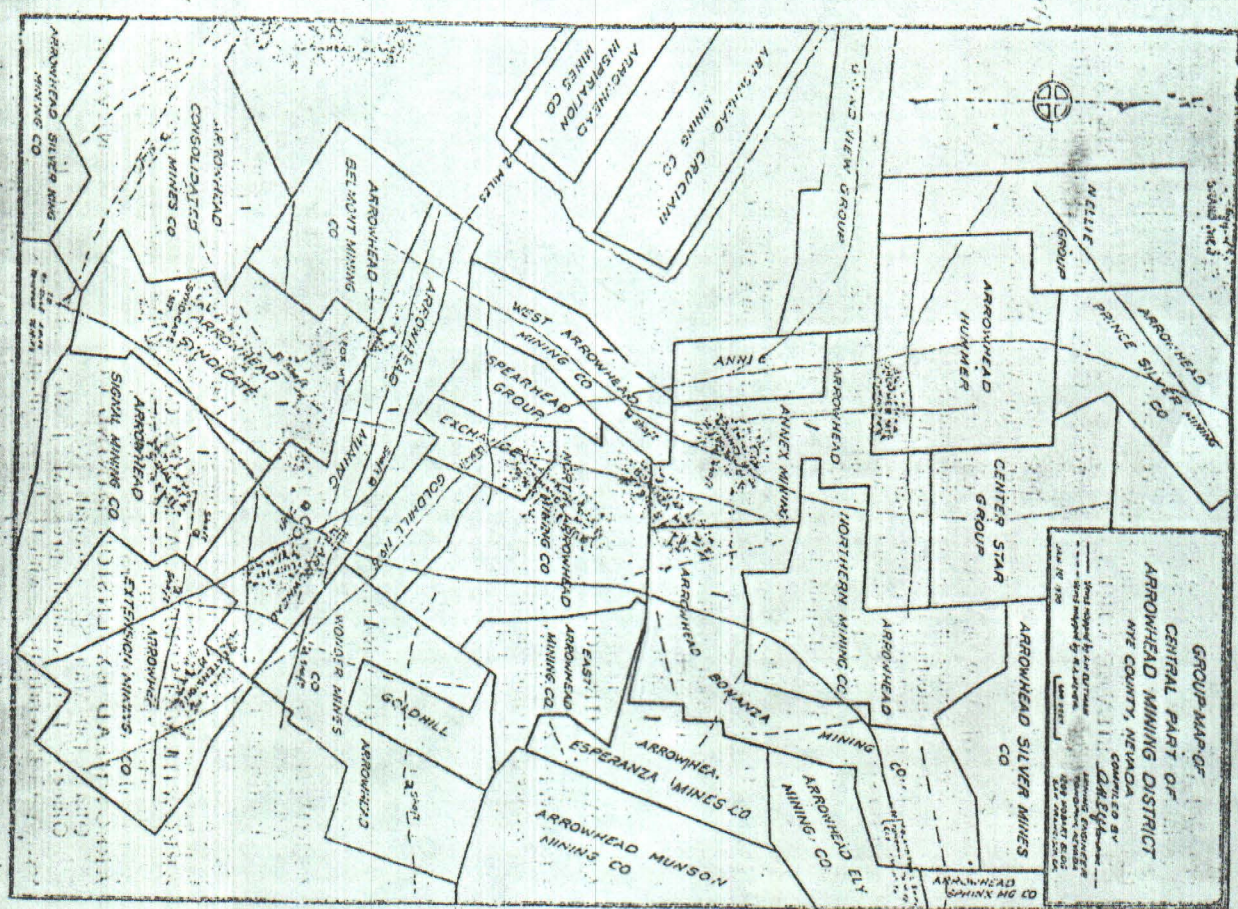

EXTENSION SILVER MINES CO.
265 Russ Bldg., Bush St., San Francisco, Calif.
(same as Arizona Silver Mines Co.), E. S. Van Dyck, pres.
man, v. p.-supt.; C. D. Olney, sec.; M. E. Pratt, chief eng.
1919, in Nevada. Cap., $1,000,000; $1 par. Listed on Boston 10, 1920.

3 claims and 3 fractions, 170 acres, between the Arizona Silver, Inc., and Silver Reef Mines Co., in Buena Vista district, near Pershing county. Reported on by J. S. Connel on December 29, 1917, was worked in the 60's and 70's and is said to have yielded $200,000.

flat bedded limestones between two rhyolite dikes, contain two that are partly developed. A fault-fissure running N. W.-S. E. property also shows some good ore. Deposits are stated to be of "fissure" types.

ent; includes merely a dozen short tunnels; three of them on on. An 80' shaft cut this same vein 300' from the outcrop, and on this orebody, assuming an average thickness of 12" is said to 30 tons of 12.1 oz. ore. The "fissures" carry more gold than the na Silver company's vein is looked for 200' below the Silver Reef is considered by Coupal better than the other two properties in a. As part of Van Riper's publicity campaign, he published in an open letter to Thomas W. Lawson of Frenziel Finance fame,

1011

WEED, W.H., 1921, MINES HAND BOOK.