

1470 0003

PROPERTY NAME: Iron King MineOTHER NAMES: IC-Claims (Chevron Minerals)MINERAL COMMODITY(IES): U, Au?TYPE OF DEPOSIT: Quartz veins in volcanicsACCESSIBILITY: See topo sheetOWNERSHIP: Old claims-not known/Chevron Minerals have new claims. Reverted to Bengoa et al when Chevron pulled out.PRODUCTION: None(?) - too small.HISTORY: Not knownCounty: HumboldtMining District: DiasterAMS Sheet: VyaQuad Sheet: Diaster Peak 15'
SW/4SW/4Sec. 9, T 46N, R 34E

Coordinate (UTM):

North 4 6 3 6 4 0 0 mEast 0 4 0 2 5 0 0 mZone 11DEVELOPMENT: Three sets of old workings consisting of adits & shafts. New work consists of numerous drill roads & numerous drill holes. This work done 2-3 years ago.ACTIVITY AT TIME OF EXAMINATION: None. Not known if Chevron is still working in area. Somebody was in area same day as me.GEOLOGY: Mixture of rhyo & andesite? or something inbetween white quartz veins in fault structures. Pyrite on wall rock. Also gray, greasy quartz present. Considerable pyrite in places.Located on west edge of McDermitt Caldera Complex.REMARKS: Location Notice: IC-73-claim name; staked Oct 2, 1982, by Chevron U.S.A. Golden Colo.2) Sample #24163) Talked to Ken Holtz of McDermitt Mine. They have leased property from Bengoa et al. They have this canyon, Gold Hill Canyon to Ridge top & So. to Horse Canyon.REFERENCES: NBMG Bull. 59, Rytuba, et al - open file reports on McDermitt Caldera ComplexEXAMINER: RBJDATE VISITED: 8-15-84