

(226)

1760 0022

Item 23

Ellsworth DIST.

Quartz veins at Ellsworth, T. 18 N., R. 37-38 E., Tonopah quadrangle, formerly worked for silver, contain small amounts of huebnerite associated with fluorite, scheelite, biotite, and orthoclase. The Erie and Enterprise veins provided the specimens from which the mineral huebnerite was originally described. The tungsten deposits

---

Riotte, E.,

---

were worked on a small scale in 1930-31.

---

Ness, F. L., Tungsten in 1931; U. S. Bureau of Mines, Mineral Resources of the United States, 1931, part 1, p. 44.

---