

2160 0046

91
Item 47

TABLE 1

INDEX

Historic Goldfield Buildings and Sites as Shown on Map 5

Page 1 of 5

BUILDINGS	BLOCK NO.	PHOTO NO.	YEAR BUILT	PAGE IN TEXT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION
BANKS				131-137	(see the section on banks)
First National	10	101	1907		Originally known as the Nye Building
Goldfield Bank & Trust Co.	8		1904		Office in a galvanized iron building, which also houses The Goldfield Daily Sun
Nye and Ormsby County	2	54, 109	1904		Stone building next to the Palace Block
John S. Cook & Co.	4	90	1905		In the Nixon Block
State Bank & Trust Co.	4, 10	91, 105 108	1905		Street next to Miners Union Hall; a sub-branch in the 1905 State Bank Building
CHURCHES				149-155	(see the section on churches)
Catholic (First)	197	121	1905		Occupied from June 1905 to October 1907
Catholic	50	51, 122	1907		Services held there until 1925; burned in 1943
Christian Science	53				No information
Episcopal	57	123	1907-1908		Closed in 1932; dismantled in 1945
Methodist-Episcopal	45	124	1912		The building is still standing on Crook Avenue
Presbyterian (Tent)	5	125	1905		A large tent housed the congregation for this, the first church in Goldfield. Situated on Hall Avenue between Main and Columbia Streets
Presbyterian	46	126	1906		Dismantled about 1925
HOSPITALS				147-149	(see the section on hospitals)
County	Maps 6, 7		1905		A few hundred feet east of the Brewery; see Map 7
Miner's Union	Maps 6, 7		1905		About 400 feet east of County Hospital; see Map 7
First St. Mary's			1905		Earlier known as the Miner's Union Hospital
Mine Operators	180	120	1905		Situated on Columbia Street near Gold Street
St. Mary's	180	120, 133	1905		Formerly the aforementioned Mine Operators Hospital
Tent Hospital	24		1904		Situated near the 1905 Town Jail
HOTELS				117-125	(see the section on hotels)
Canvas	26		1906		For overnight lodgers only
Casey	8	95	1907		Goldfield's premier hotel prior to the construction of the Goldfield Hotel
Brown Palace	8		1905		Next to the Ross Theater

TABLE 1
INDEX
Historic Goldfield Buildings and Sites as Shown on Map 5
Page 2 of 5

BUILDINGS	BLOCK NO.	PHOTO NO.	YEAR BUILT	PAGE IN TEXT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION
HOTELS (continued)
Esmeralda	11	46, 107	1904		One of the earliest hotels in Goldfield
Grimshaw	19	93	1907		Goldfields first luxury hotel, antedating the Casey Hotel
Goldfield (first)	14		1905		Opened in November 1905; destroyed by fire on November 17, 1906
Goldfield	14	98, 99 100	1907- 1908		Constructed on the site of the first Goldfield Hotel. For many years it was rated as the finest hotel in Nevada. It is still standing but is unoccupied (1981)
Groto	2	46	1904		The site was later occupied by the Goldfield Athletic Club
Merchants	Map 7	16	1904		Situated in Columbia; see Map 7
National	10	101	1907		First known as the Nye Building, then as the First National Bank; then in 1913 as the National Hotel. Burned in 1923
Nevada (unfinished)	5	96, 106	1906		A large 90'x100' frame building, practically completed circa 1908 but never used as a hotel
Nevada	2		1908		Situated across Columbia Street from the Goldfield Hotel
San Carlos	195		1906		Situated at 805 North Main. Little known about it
St. Francis	2		1904		At the southwest corner of Block 2. Burned on October 10, 1906
St. Nicholas	11		1905		Located west of Main on Myers Avenue
Watson House	17	97	1906		An adobe building on Hall and Fifth Avenues
NEWSPAPERS				155- 157	(see the section on newspapers)
The Goldfield News	8	127	1904		Home of the first newspaper printed in Goldfield
The Goldfield News	15	104	1907		In the Loftus-Davis (News) Building
Goldfield Chronicle	8		1907		Review-Chronicle Building
Goldfield Review	8		1907		Both the Chronicle and Review published in same building
Goldfield Daily Tribune	15	104	1907		The News Building purchased by the Goldfield Tribune Publishing Company in 1911
Goldfield Daily Sun	8				During its short life the newspaper occupied a galvanized iron building; later the site at the Whitmore Building
Goldfield Gossip	9	128	1904		Housed in the Exploration Building
SCHOOLS				140- 147	(see the section on schools)
Mary McLaughlin (Cedar Street School)	196	112	1906		The first school building in Goldfield
Columbia		118	1906		Situated in Columbia, one mile north of Goldfield
Diamondfield		119	1906		Situated in Diamondfield (see Map 2)
Goldfield High School	45	113, 136	1907		A 12-room stone building (still standing)

TABLE 1
INDEX
 Historic Goldfield Buildings and Sites as Shown on Map 5
 Page 3 of 5

BUILDINGS	BLOCK NO.	PHOTO NO.	YEAR BUILT	PAGE IN TEXT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION
SCHOOLS (continued)
Sundog	84	116	1908		On Sundog Avenue (see Map 7)
West Side (West Crook)	39	117	1908		A two-room building (still standing)
MISCELLANEOUS
Ajax's Parisienne	12		1905	81	An elite dance hall and restaurant operated by Victor Ajax. Located on Main Street in the red-light district
Baseball Field	Maps 5 & 7	63, 74	1905	94, 97	Located in the low ground about 1000' north of the West Side School; the site of the Gans-Nelson fight; later occupied by the L.V.&T. R.R. yards. See Maps 5 and 7
Beesley (Crosby & Peet)	4		1904	139	Housed the Goldfield Post Office, 1904-1907
Bon Ton Millinery	2		1904	71	Where the July 8, 1905 fire started
Brown-Parker Garage	2	49	1907	75	Across Columbia Street from the Goldfield Hotel, showing the remnants of the garage following the 1923 fire
California Beer Hall	5				A popular rendezvous owned by Carl Fuetsch and Joseph Grasser
Carpenter's Union Hall	9		1907		Two-story frame building. The second home of the Masonic Temple
Chiatovich Store	2	46	1904	72	Adjacent to the Red Front Saloon. Later the location of the Wood-Sullivan Hardware Store
Collins Butcher Shop	2		1904	139	The site of the first Goldfield Post Office early in 1904. The building was adjacent to the Red Front Saloon
Court House (temporary)	196		1907	108	In the same block as the Cedar Street School (see the section on the County Seat of Esmeralda County)
Court House & Jail	52	86, 124	1907-1908	109	On Crook Avenue. The building is still standing
Crosby & Peet (Beesley)	4		1904	139	Later known as the Beesley Building. It was the site of the Post Office, 1905-1907
Downer Brothers Assay Office	7,16		1906 1924	167	Office located where North Main and Broadway Streets diverge. The first office burned in the 1923 fire. In 1924 the office moved to Block 16
Dugouts. Primitive Shelter	Map 7	12, 13	1903-1904		About three blocks south of the West Side School
Exchange, Goldfield Mining	9	105	1907		A two-story stone building on Main Street
Exchange, Goldfield Stock & Exchange	3	106	1907		The building was situated at the southwest corner of Columbia & Ramsey
Goldfield French Laundry	89	134	1906	170	Situated at the southwest corner of Main and Crystal, across from the red-light district
Goldfield's Fire House	53	52	1907		A two-story stone building (still standing)
Goldfield Plunge and Turkish Baths	17	82	1907	101	Directly west of the Watson House on Hall Avenue
Hippodrome	17	79, 80	1907	99	Goldfield's principal theatre and playhouse. Dismantled in 1920

TABLE 1
INDEX
Historic Goldfield Buildings and Sites as Shown on Map 5
Page 4 of 5

BUILDINGS	BLOCK NO.	PHOTO NO.	YEAR BUILT	PAGE IN TEXT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION
MISCELLANEOUS (continued)
Hermitage Saloon	10	107	1904	133	One of the famous Four Corner Saloons. Earlier occupied by the State Bank & Trust Company
Homer-Wilson Trust Co.	9		1907		A three-story stone building, 70'x100'
Ish-Curtis	15	102	1907	124	A three-story structure (still standing)
Jail, Town	24	71	1905	94	A small stone building situated on First Street across from the red-light district. It is still standing
Jake's Dance Hall	12	76	1905	81, 166	Owned by Jake Goodfriend. Located in the red-light district
Ladies Aid Hall	10		1904	82, 149 156	A two-story frame building used for many functions during its lifetime
Loftus-Davis; also known as the News	15	104	1907	139, 156	The 1907 home of The Goldfield News and the Post Office
Louvre	10	108, 168	1905		A restaurant situated next to the Miners Union Hall
Lucky Strike Saloon	190	120, 133	1906	148	Owned by John Avanzini. Situated at 724 North Broadway
Masonic Temple		111			At the southeast corner of Sundog and Crook. Formerly a private residence; it was the sixth home of the Temple. Burned in 1945
Miners Union Hall	10	108, 168	1904	220	A two-story frame building, 30'x60'
Mackenzie, D. & Co.	10		1907		A two-story stone building, 50'x100'
McCormick-Dorsey	9		1907		A two-story frame building, 50'x100'
Monian & Mitchell (M&M)	4	135	1907	75	A two-story frame building next to the Nixon Block. T.&G. R.R. office, 1915-1923
Montezuma Club	15	103, 104	1907	131- 133	Adjacent to the News Building. Later the home of the Elks Club
Mohawk Saloon	11		1905		One of the famous Four Corner Saloons at Crook and Main
Monte Carlo	11		1905		A two-story frame building next to the Mohawk Saloon
Nevada-California Power Co.	46	44	1907	69	A two-story brick building next to the Presbyterian Church. It burned in 1926
Nixon Block	4	90, 135	1905	116	The first large stone building in Goldfield. It housed the John S. Cook & Co. Bank
Nixon-Wingfield	15	102, 135	1907	124	A stone building, 42'x50'. It was the office of the Goldfield Consol. Mines Co.; later the Goldfield Deep Mines Co. (still standing)
News	15	104	1907	139, 156	Constructed by Loftus and Davis
Nye	10	101	1907	124, 134	The highest building in Goldfield. A stone structure four stories high. First occupied by the First National Bank, it became the National Hotel in 1913
Northern Saloon	3		1905		The most famous of the Four Corner Saloons in Goldfield. Operated by Tex Rickard, who later became a famous boxing promoter

TABLE 1
INDEX
Historic Goldfield Buildings and Sites as Shown on Map 5
Page 5 of 5

BUILDINGS	BLOCK NO.	PHOTO NO.	YEAR BUILT	PAGE IN TEXT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION
MISCELLANEOUS (continued)
Palm Grill	10		1906	81	The elite eating place in Goldfield
Palm Studio	4	85	1905		Across Main Street from the Miners Union Hall
Palace Block	2	54	1905	117	One of the three major buildings built in Goldfield during 1905. It housed one of the Four Corner Saloons. The third home of the Masonic Temple
Post Offices	2 4 15	104	1904 1904 1907	139	First location was at the Red Front Saloon; then the Collins Butcher Shop; then the Beesley Building; and finally the News Building
Peterson	10	107	1905	131	First occupied by the State Bank and Trust Co., followed by the Hermitage Saloon
Ray, Tom	2		1904	74	Where the great fire of July 1923 started
Red-Light District	12, 24 90, 91	76	1905	166	Consisting of many "cribs," dance halls and saloons. It was mainly confined to the two blocks bounded by Myers and Crystal Avenues and First and Main Streets
Red Front Saloon	2	109	1904	139	Partially occupied by the Post Office in 1904
Ross-Holly	5	88, 135	1907	124	A two-story structure, 60'x80'. The upper floor was used for dancing, etc.
Ross Theatre	8		1907		Adjacent to the Brown Palace Hotel
Southern Nevada Consol. Telephone and Telegraph Co.	15		1907		A stone building, 22'x60', next to the Nixon-Wingfield Building on Ramsey Avenue. It is still standing
Sullivan Trust Co.	16		1907		Headquarters of the infamous stock-jobbing operations of George Graham Rice
Texas Saloon	3		1905		Across Ramsey Avenue from the Nixon Building; a popular gathering place
Tex Rickard's Home	53	89	1907	115	This stone house was one of the finest residences in Goldfield. It is still standing diagonally across Crook Avenue from the Esmeralda County Court House
Whitmore	8	105	1907	157	A two-story stone building, 30'x100'. It occupied the space originally used by The Goldfield Sun and the Goldfield Bank and Trust Co.
Williams, Walter	8		1907		A two-story stone building, 50'x100', next to the Review-Chronicle Building
Wood-Sullivan	2	54	1906	134	A two-story brick building next to the Nye and Ormsby County Bank. Later it expanded to the bank building. The second floor became the fourth home of the Masonic Temple
Western Union	3		1905		A small building next to the Texas Saloon on Ramsey Avenue