Hughes Tool Company
Tonopah, Nevada

Dear Sirs;

A recent article in our local paper, stated that the Hughes Tool Company was purchasing gold mining claims in and around Goldfield, Nevada.

In 1946 my father Sherman W. Small passed away. Among his personal things that were left to me were some shares in Goldfield Great Bend Mining Co.

Certificate No.	1998	200 shares
Certificate No.	2178	100 Shares

My questions are; Is this one of the mines that the Hughes Tool Company purchased? If so is the stock worth anything?

Sincerely yours,

Sherman D. Small

INTER-OFFICE CORRESPONDENCE

To A. J. Anderson From Leila M. Shrider Office
Office January 29, 1970 19
Subject Goldfield Great Bend Mining Co.

According to the Deputy Assessor, Frances Carlson of Esmeralda County, the Goldfield Great Bend Mining Company is defunct. The patented claims that were owned by this company were taken by the County for taxes and sold from the tax roll.

Hughes Tool Company now owns some of the Great Bend claims, but they were purchases from another individual, and according to the papers that I have, there was no transfer of stock interests.

Respectfully,

Leila M. Shrider
