

Quantitatively the undiscovered tonnage at reasonable depth cannot be expected to exceed the past production, and should have about one-third the metal content, a potential of 100,000 tons of $20 ore at current prices.

Justin Kreek
Justin Kreek