

3840 0005

PROPERTY NAME: Red Butte Mine

OTHER NAMES: _____

MINERAL COMMODITY(IES): _____

TYPE OF DEPOSIT: Was on vein material in volcanics.ACCESSIBILITY: Poor roads north of SulphurOWNERSHIP: Most of the area is controlled by the
Harris family who have owned the claimsPRODUCTION: many years..This mine never producedHISTORY: Old camp.County: PershingMining District: Red ButteAMS Sheet: VyaQuad Sheet: King Lear 15'Sec. Unsurv. T 37N R 30E

Coordinate (UTM):

North 4 14 15 10 17 15 mEast 0 13 16 17 0 1 15 m

Zone _____

DEVELOPMENT: The Red Butte Mine is small having one main adit.ACTIVITY AT TIME OF EXAMINATION: Active in the area but not at the Red Butte which is also the site of the Harris main camp at the large spring.GEOLOGY: Area is a complex of granitic intrusives in Permian volcanics of the Happy Creek formation. Sample 2941 is a highly silicified partly brecciated iron-stained vein material without visible mineralization.

Photo 15

REMARKS: _____

REFERENCES: Wilden 1964 NBMG Bull 59EXAMINER: Jack QuadeDATE VISITED: 6-7-85