Dear Mr. Smith:

As you have requested, we hereby grant you permission to include--with proper credit--parts of ten paragraphs on pages 5-17 of the W. Turrentine Jackson book TREASURE HILL, Portrait of a Silver Mining Camp, published by the University of Arizona Press, in your U. S. Geological Survey and the Nevada Bureau of Mines Cooperative Report on WHITE PINE COUNTY of NEVADA. For this use we grant you the permission without charge. Your credit line should read: by permission from TREASURE HILL, Portrait of a Silver Mining Camp, W. Turrentine Jackson, Tucson: University of Arizona Press, copyright 1970.

Should you have any further questions to raise, please correspond directly with

Hill, Portrait of a Silver Mining Camp

Gentlemen:

The U.S. Geological Survey and the Nevada Bureau of Mines have for some years cooperated in publishing a series of bulletins on the Geology and Mineral Resources of each of the 17 counties in Nevada. The report on White Pine County is in preparation, and I, as one of the authors, wish to quote parts of 10 paragraphs on pages 5-17 of Mr. Jackson's book relating to the early history of the White Pine district. A copy of the proposed quotation, together with the paragraphs preceding and following it, is enclosed. Full acknowledgment of the source of the quotation will be given in the bibliography.

Sincerely yours,

Roscoe M. Smith
