Inc. 1915 (by F. C. Richmond, pres., Richmond Machinery Co., 117 W. Second St., Salt Lake City, Utah) to take over property of the Day Bristol Cons. Mines Co. Company is the operating company of the International & Intercontinental Mng. & Ref. Co., which see.

Cap., $600,000; shares, $1 par; non-assessable.

Initial dividend of 1c a share paid, Sept., 1916, equal to $6,000. Monthly dividends of 1c are now paid.

Property: 30 claims, 460 acres, 15 miles west of Pioche, includes the May Day, Hillside, Tempest, Gypsy, Vesuvius, National, Inman, Tempest, Oregon Short Line, Iron and Day mines. The Day mine comprises 5 claims on the opposite side of the mountain and was needed in order to drive a tunnel through the mountain, giving direct access to the railroad.

Ore is a mixed sulphide carrying silver, lead, copper, and some zinc, occurring in limestone cut by fissures.

Development: by 2 old shafts, the 700' Gypsy and 500' May Day, both out of commission in 1915. A shaft, being put in condition, July, 1916, will be the main working shaft and will be connected with the 500' level. Old workings exceed 10,000'. In 1916, new work included mining ore on the 300', 350' and 450' levels and sinking a winze from 500' to 630' level.

The future lies in the Bristol property, in which high grade ore persists to 500' depth.

Equipment: 4 hoists, 3 compressors, 5 oil-engines, 4 boilers (400 h. p. total), 2 mile aerial tram, machine shop, assay office, buildings, etc., complete.

Production: in 1916 was 11,000 tons of copper-lead-silver ore. Over 1,000 tons being shipped monthly in 1917, excepting during a period when the tramway was burned.

VIRGINIA-LOUISE MINING CO.NEVADA

Address: Pioche, Nev.

Property: a silver-lead and iron mine adjoining the Prince Consolidated. The Prince company, which has a large interest in the Davidson M. Co., had an option on control of the Virginia-Louise, but dropped the option after being convinced that the Davidson owned the orebodies of the Virginia-Louise by right of the apex law.

In July, 1917, the Davidson company was suing the Virginia-Louise, claiming the orebody in the latter property, while in September, the Virginia-Louise was suing the Prince Consolidated for trespass.

At last accounts, H. R. Van Wagenen, A. D. Knowlton, R. T. Walker, and E. H. Snyder were examining the ground for the Prince company. The quantity of ore at stake is considerable.
